Nursing Mothers and

Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless aid to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, back-ache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary spots or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

TUCKER AND MANN SPEAK.

Harry St. George Tucker spoke twice in Richmond last night. His reception was most flattering at both places. With sleeves rolled up to the elbow, and eyes sparkling with anticipated success, the candidate presented an unusual appearance. He began with Judge Mann and ended with Judge Mann, the entire discourse being clean and almost friendly, despite the political differences for the governorship. Mr. Tucker emphatically declared that Judge Mann had the temperance and the liquor leaders in line with him, and that the two elements were backed on for success. His remarks were continually greeted with applause. The audience seemed thoroughly in accord with the speaker.

Judge Mann last night in Suffolk pleaded hard for the temperance vote of Suffolk, which is a dry town. "The temperance people of Virginia owe me their support," he declared, "for I am their acknowledged leader, and my defeat would be their defeat." He asserted that he would rather have had part in the passage of the Mann bill than to be governor of Virginia, or president of the United States.

Judge Mann claimed that instead of carrying forty-two counties, as the newspapers' poll has shown, he hopes to carry seventy, and to carry thirteen cities, instead of eight, as the poll showed.

The speaker defended the "ring," and denied he had bargained with the liquor people for support. He said he had not resided in Petersburg for many years, except when the legislature was in session at Richmond, and denied that he had been asked to make speeches there in the local option campaign. He said all the love some of the newspapers had for him could be written on a dime, and leave room for the declaration of independence.

HIS FOURTH DEFEAT.

Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday suffered his fourth defeat within ten months at the hands of the voters.

The Schmidt traction franchise granting to an associate of the mayor a grant in Payne avenue to operate a traction line at a 3-cent fare, which was to have been the basic ordinance of extension grants to cover practically three-quarters of the city's traction system with 3-cent fare lines, was denied confirmation in the referendum election yesterday.

For the franchise's approval 30,944 votes were cast; against the franchise, 34,926, a majority against the mayor's side of 3,982 votes.

The total vote was 20,000 short of the registration.

The political situation is complicated, however, by the victory of the mayor's opponents, inasmuch as Robt. McKisson, former republican mayor, and opponent of Mark Hanna before the latter's elevation to the Senate, had much to do with the defeat of the mayor. McKisson is to be a candidate for the republican majority nomination.

His entry into the race will revive the factionalism which has split the republican party, and made more easy Mayor Johnson's frequent victories.

ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP PRIEST.

Rev. Arthur Suck, acting pastor of the Holy Trinity Polish Catholic Church in Utica, N. Y., from which Rev. Simon Poink was removed as pastor several weeks ago, Monday afternoon went into the police court and lodged complaint against twenty members of the congregation, who, he says, endeavored to kidnap him late Saturday night for the purpose of murdering him.

The priest's accusation has created a big sensation and the police will provide a bodyguard for him.

According to the story told by Father Suck, he had been hastily summoned to go to a hospital to attend a dying man. As he came from the church he was surrounded by a score of his parishioners who, he alleges, endeavored to drag him into a waiting carriage.

Father Suck shouted for help. Then he drew the box in which he carried the sacrament from his inner coat pocket, held it aloft and called upon the men not to commit a sacrilege while he was carrying the sacrament to a dying man.

The assailants of the priest then fell back for a moment and Father Suck escaped into the church.

FATAL BLOW.

A childish quarrel over a minor matter, which resulted in a fist fight, ended fatally yesterday, when John Friedel, the 11-year-old son of Mr. George Friedel, of Baltimore, died in less than half an hour after he had been struck a blow in the pit of the stomach by his erstwhile chum, August Kruger, 10 years old. Kruger was arrested immediately after the death of the boy on the charge of being responsible for Friedel's death. He was dismissed, however, at an inquest held yesterday afternoon when the jury convened gave a verdict of accidental death and exonerated the lad from all blame. Friedel was operated upon a few months ago at the Johns Hopkins Hospital for appendicitis and it is the belief that he was hit in what may be termed a soft spot in his stomach, this being the immediate cause of his death.
